

Free Therapy for Children

Available for elementary school students in
Blaine, Mount Baker and Ferndale School Districts

Brigid Collins will be providing free therapy for children who have experienced trauma including things like family violence and child sexual abuse.

To enroll your child for therapy, contact your school's Vice Principle. If you would like to request this service confidentially, please contact Brigid Collins at (360) 734-4616

Each child and family circumstance is different. As a part of the enrollment process you can determine the best time and location for your child including: at school, after school, or in a different location

You may call Brigid Collins at (360) 734-4616 to enroll your child.
