

PROMISING FUTURES

Whatcom County High School Student Art

MAY 3 - 30, 2018

ARTIST RECEPTION

Thursday, May 3, 5:30 PM - 7:00 PM

The Jansen Art Center is proud to host Promising Futures: Whatcom County High School Student Art. The exhibit opens with an artist reception on Thursday, May 3 from 5:30 - 7:00 PM with live music in the piano lounge with guitarist Adrian Clarke.

Established in 1997 at the Whatcom Museum of History and Art, Promising Futures showcases the artwork of students from across the county. The exhibition provides dedicated, aspiring high school artists a chance to display their work in a fine arts gallery.

Schools represented include Bellingham, Blaine, Ferndale, Lynden, Lynden Christian, Meridian, Mount Baker, Options, Sehome and Squalicum. The exhibit includes drawings, paintings, ceramics and digital art.

Artwork Credit: Shannon Butler, My Wave (Hukasai), colored pencil, McKenzie Willet, Portrait Study, colored pencil, Tanya Rayo, Separate Worlds, colored pencil and oil pastel and Michael Bornstein, Salt and Pepper Shaker Set, clay and glazes.
