Point Roberts Primary Student Emergency Kit

In the event of an emergency situation while your child is in school, our Safety Committee is recommending that a kit be kept at school that contains items that may help to comfort your child.

Please send the following items in a gallon-size zip top plastic bag. All items for the emergency kit must fit into the gallon sized plastic bag. Please print your child's name on the bag.

Food:

- 2 Granola bars
- Fruit roll up or small package of raisins or nuts
- Bottle of drinking water (small size)
- Single serving, non-perishable, securely sealed food item
(such as a small container of fruit, applesauce or tuna)

Items for warmth:

- 2 large plastic garbage bags - one to sit on, another for a "raincoat"
- Space Blanket – not a blanket from home
(available at Rite-Aid ~ $4.00; also at Dollar Store in Tsawwassen ~ $1.50)

Medication:

- If your child takes any medication regularly, please have a supply kept in our office.

Other possible items:

- Family photo
- Wipe-ups, small individual purse size only
- Small squeeze flashlight (available at Market Place near the batteries for about $2.00)
- Letter of comfort from you letting your child know that they will be cared for until you arrive at school
